

2008 Herbert Scobie Leadership School Information

BACKGROUND

The Herbert Scobie Leadership School is designed to provide leadership training to men who are primarily in their first year or two of membership, but all Triangle actives are welcome. Attendees do not need to hold a formal position of leadership; however, participants will need to:

1. Possess a strong desire to learn about themselves;
2. Be committed to the values of Triangle;
3. Be an active participant throughout the Leadership School;
4. Be willing to plot a course of action for their undergraduate fraternity experience and beyond.

The Leadership School is named after Herbert F. Scobie minn32. Brother Scobie was Triangle's first full-time Executive Director and was instrumental in the formation of the national programs and national headquarters which, at the time, was located in Evanston, Illinois. During the August 6-9, 1994 Leadership School held in Madison, Wisconsin, the National Council approved a motion to rename the school to honor Brother Scobie's longtime service to the Fraternity.
